

Starting well in the early years

Information to support learning at home

Websites

<http://www.talkingpoint.org.uk/> information on children's communication

<https://www.ican.org.uk/> Children's communication charity

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people> BBC campaign to address the language gap. Videos for parents

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/grownups> Parenthood tips and tricks

<https://hungrylittleminds.campaign.gov.uk/> DFE. Includes social media, online adverts and a website where parents can access tips and activities and search for groups in their area using a postcode finder service.

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/> children's reading charity

<https://www.pacey.org.uk/parents/parent-essentials/> a range of factsheets, videos, activities and guides

<http://www.thecommunicationtrust.org.uk/earlyyears/>

Documents

Improving the home learning environment DFE

Ages and stages \(ASQ\) activities for parents to support child development

What to expect and when A parent's guide to child learning and development in the EYFS

Musical development matters Ideas and guidance about children's development

Small Talk Booklet for parents about how children learn to talk

Twitter

@Literacy_Trust

@booktrust

@BrookesASQ

@earlyyears_SK1

@TalesToolkit

Hashtags

#chatplayread

#hungrylittleminds

#parentsmakethedifference

Pinterest

Early Years Team Stockport